REPORT OF INDEPENDENT CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

The Managing Member
Greencoast Capital Partners LLC

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Greencoast Capital Partners LLC as of December 31, 2010, and the related statements of operations, changes in member's equity, and cash flows for the period from January 26, 2010 through December 31, 2010 that you are filing pursuant to rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Greencoast Capital Partners LLC as of December 31, 2010, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The information contained in Schedules I and II is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by rule 17a-5 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
December 31, 2010

1. Organization and summary of significant accounting policies

Organization:

Greencoast Capital Partners LLC (the "Company") located in Los Angeles, California was formed in the State of Delaware on February 1, 2009, for the purpose of conducting business as a registered broker dealer in securities. The Company is a full service investment banking firm specializing in the underwriting of municipal securities and providing financial advisory series to cities, counties, school districts and special districts in California. The Company received its license to conduct business as a broker dealer on January 26, 2010.

The Company is owned 100% by Greencoast Capital Holding LLC (the "Parent Company").

The Company does not hold cash or securities for the account of customers. The Company operates under the provisions of Paragraph (k)(2)(ii) of rule 15c3-3 of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 and, accordingly, is exempt from the remaining provisions of that rule. The requirements of Paragraph (k)(2)(ii) provide that the Company must clear all transactions on behalf of customers on a fully disclosed basis with a clearing broker-dealer, and promptly transmit all customer funds and securities to the clearing broker-dealer. The clearing broker-dealer carries all customer accounts and maintains all related books and records which are customarily kept by a clearing broker-dealer for accounts carried on a fully disclosed basis.

Use of estimates:

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Revenue recognition:

The Company recognizes revenues for services when the services are performed and are billable. Underwriting revenues are recorded by the Company as of the closing date of the transactions.

Concentration of credit risk:

The Company's cash demand deposits are held at financial institutions at which deposits are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC). At various times throughout the period from January 26, 2010 through December 31, 2010, the Company's cash demand deposits exceeded the FDIC's insurance limits.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
December 31, 2010

1. Organization and summary of significant accounting policies (continued)

Advertising costs:

The Company expenses the cost of advertising as incurred. Advertising expense was $7,308 for the period from January 25, 2010 through December 31, 2010.

Depreciation and amortization:

Property and equipment are stated at cost. Depreciation is provided by the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the related assets ranging from 3 to 5 years.

Income taxes:

No provision for income taxes has been provided since the members of the Parent Company report their distributive share of the Company's income and deductions in their personal capacities.

The Company is subject to accounting guidance issued by the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") related to "Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes." The guidance applies to all tax positions accounted for in the financial statements, including positions taken in a previously filed tax return or expected to be taken in a future tax return.

The Company has analyzed its filing positions in Federal and state jurisdictions where it is required to file income tax returns. Management believes the Company's positions and deductions will be sustained on audit and does not anticipate any adjustments that will result in a material adverse effect on its financial conditions, results of operations or cash flows.

Cash equivalents:

For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Company considers all highly liquid investments purchased with a maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

2. Net capital requirements

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule for fully disclosed broker/dealers (rule 15c3-1) which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 8 to 1, in the first twelve months of commencing business as a broker dealer, and 15 to 1 thereafter. At December 31, 2010, the Company had net capital of $304,226 which was $204,226 in excess of its required net capital of $100,000. The Company had aggregate indebtedness in the amount of $123,477; therefore, its net capital ratio was 0.41 to 1 at December 31, 2010.

The Managing Member
Greencoast Capital Partners LLC

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements and supplemental schedules of Greencoast Capital Partners LLC (the Company), as of and for the period from January 26, 2010 through December 31, 2010, in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, we considered the Company's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) as a basis for designing our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion of the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion of the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.

Also, as required by rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company including consideration of control activities for safeguarding securities. This study included tests of such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in rule 17a-5(g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness (or aggregate debits) and net capital under rule 17a-3(a)(11) and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

1. Making quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications and comparisons
2. Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable but not absolute assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in internal control or the practices and procedures referred to above, error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

A control deficiency exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent or detect misstatement on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a control deficiency, or combination of control deficiencies, that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

A material weakness is a deficiency, or combination of deficiencies, in internal control, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the company's financial statements will not be prevented or detected and corrected on a timely basis.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the first and second paragraphs and would not necessarily identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses. We did not identify any deficiencies in internal control and control activities for safeguarding securities that we consider to be material weaknesses, as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2010, to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the member, management, the SEC, the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc., and other regulatory agencies which rely on rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
